

<https://www.izsler.it/symposium/>

ISTITUTO ZOOPROFILATTICO
SPERIMENTALE DELLA LOMBARDIA E
DELL'EMILIA ROMAGNA
"BRUNO UBERTINI"

INTERNATIONAL SYMPOSIUM

15 OCTOBER 2024 Brescia – Italy

Animal welfare and health indicators:
potential to further reduce the antimicrobial usage in farming

Experts from:
European Commission
Italian Ministry of Health
Istituti Zooprofilattici Sperimentali
National and international stakeholders

AGENDA

9:00 – 9:30 Registration Opening Session

9:30 – 9:45 • Welcome address

Giorgio Varisco. – IZSLER General Director
Authority and Stakeholder Representative

9:45 – 10:00 • Opening of the meeting
• Introduction on participants

Giovanni Filippini – Ministry of Health
Ugo Della Marta – Ministry of Health

Technical Session

10:00 – 10:30 • European perspectives on the use of animal welfare indicators and their potential to further reduce the use of drugs in farming.

Andrea Gavinelli – European Commission

10:30 – 11:00 • Shaping the future of risk assessment:EFSA’s Initiatives in welfare indicators and future data collection

Yves Van der Stede– EFSA

11:00 – 11:15 Coffee break

11:15 – 11:45 • Animal Welfare indicators: from science into practice

Heleen van de Weerd – Cerebrus Advies

11:45 – 12:15 • Animal Welfare and Health indicators: role of slaughterhouses and AI

G. Loris Alborali – IZSLER

12:15 – 12:45 • Antimicrobial stewardship: the example of Classyfarm

Salvatore Catania – IZSVe

12:45 – 13:30 • Open Discussion

EFSA; FAO; WOA; WOH; COPA–COGECA;
EUROGROUP FOR ANIMALS; EU CVO

13:30 – 15:00 Lunch

15:00 – 16:30 Santa Giulia and Capitolium Visit

18:00 – 19:00 Franciacorta Winery Visit

19:00 – 21:00 Tasting and dinner at the Franciacorta Winery

International Symposium

15 OCTOBER 2024 Brescia – Italy

The monumental complex of San Salvatore – Santa Giulia and the Roman Brescia Archaeological Park have been included in the World Heritage List, promoted by UNESCO in the serial site “The Longobards in Italy.

The Places of Power (568–774 CE)”